TEACHING - LEARNING APPROACH

This course is based on classroom practice (discussion, pair-work, group-work, projects) facilitated by instructor input as well as classroom observations and micro-teaching by students.

REQUIREMENTS

- This is a 5 ECTS course. Students should expect to be studying inside and outside the classroom for an average of 7 hours per week.
- You are expected to come to class prepared to demonstrate effective participation in class discussions.
- Students should take the mid-term examination and the final examination at the specified date and time and complete any given assignments promptly.
- There is a strong continuous assessment dimension to this course. Students are strongly advised to attend all classes. 70% attendance is a requirement for a passing grade.
- Students should avoid plagiarism, which is intentionally failing to give credit to sources used in writing (or speaking) regardless of whether they are published or unpublished. Plagiarism (which also includes any kind of cheating in exams) is a disciplinary offence.
- All references should be formatted using the APA System.
